

EMPLOYEE PERKS PROGRAM

Did You Know?

Matrix GPO programs are designed with the goal of supporting community-based practitioners.

Bridging the Access to Employee Appreciation

53% of employees say that employee perks give them a better quality of life

01 | Employee Discount Program Benefits

Matrix GPO recognizes the importance of valuing employees — not only to encourage retention, but to build a healthier company culture as well. One way to show appreciation for employees is to implement a rewards program. These programs can contain perks ranging from giveaways to fun team activities. Costs for such incentives can be driven down by leveraging your group purchasing power to receive discounts.

Recognizing your employees can also serve to benefit your organization long-term. Some of the objectives of rewards programs involve:

- Attracting and retaining employees

- Controlling healthcare costs with workplace health programs
- Increasing employee productivity
- Increasing employee engagement

Matrix GPO can help make celebrating your employees a meaningful and affordable task.

02 | Employee Perks & Discount Highlights

Matrix GPO provides members access to employee perks and discounts to supplement their current benefits through a savings network of national and local discount offers, monthly giveaways, wellness perks and more; all accessible from the website or mobile app. Resources are available to easily integrate existing and customized discounts and show employee appreciation with many options including:

- Personalized greeting cards
